Important Information

This Financial Services Guide (“FSG”) is intended to provide you with important information to consider before engaging with our services and our business. The matters covered by the FSG include who we are, how we can be contacted, what services we are authorised to provide to you, how we (and any other relevant parties) are remunerated, details of any potential conflicts of interest, and details of our internal and external dispute resolution procedures, including how you can access them.

Shartru Wealth advisers are authorised in areas they are qualified in, as such they may provide general or personal advice to you. In the event you receive general advice from your adviser, you will not receive a Statement or Record of Advice.

We may provide you with personal advice that takes into account your needs, financial situation and circumstances. Where we provide you with personal advice, we will provide you with a Statement of Advice (‘SOA’). The SOA outlines our advice and the basis on which the advice was given. It also outlines relevant information about us, our fees and charges associated with our advice. We are only able to provide personal advice about certain products as stipulated under our Australian Financial Services License (‘AFSL’). If we provide further personal advice after providing our initial advice, we may record this in a Record of Advice, instead of an SOA. You may request a record of the further advice that is provided to you, if you haven’t already been provided with it. You can also contact us within 7 years from when the advice is provided, to request this record.

When a financial product is recommended to you, you will be provided with a PDS issued by the product provider. The PDS contains information about the product to assist you in making an informed decision about the financial product. It will outline relevant terms, significant risks, and fees and charges associated with the product.
